

Critical Knowledge

I can compare Victorian hospitals to modern hospitals.

I can research about the NHS and explain why it is important.

I can describe the life of a significant individual.

I can put the events of the Life of a significant person in order using a timeline.

I can identify different jobs in the NHS.

I can discuss how job roles in the NHS have changed over time.

I can describe some of the skills and qualities that different jobs in the NHS need.

Key Questions

Would you rather go to a Victorian Hospital or a hospital today if you were unwell? Why?

Why now do you think the NHS is so important?

What would happen if we didn't have an NHS?

Who was Florence Nightingale and why is she a significant person?

Who was Mary Seacole and why was she a significant person?

What are the different roles that people have in the NHS?

Key Vocabulary

NHS

hospital

medicine

equipment

doctor

nurse

patient

Victorian

hygiene

significant person

soldier

profession

Big Question

Are we all the same?

Victorian hospital ward

Modern hospital ward

Florence Nightingale

Mary Seacole

Key Texts

Florence Nightingale Little People, Big Dreams by Maria Isabel Sanchez Vegara

The Extraordinary Life of Mary Seacole by Naida Redgrave