

War and Remembrance

Walter Tull

- A British soldier.
- First black officer to lead white soldiers into battle.
- Second black professional football player.
- He died in battle in France in

Key Vocabulary	Definition
army	The group of soldiers who are trained to home front	The people who stay in their own country
front line	Areas closest to the fighting.
poppy	A red flower. Poppies grew in the battle-remembrance	Remembering important events such as armistice	An agreement between two groups at war
trenches	Long, narrow ditches dug in the ground

Sources

monuments	records

newspapers	Photographs

artefacts	ceremonies

What is Remembrance Sunday?

Remembrance Sunday is the day when people take time to remember those who died in the First World War and all the other wars since.

Remembrance Day is on the 11th November every year.

There is a two-minute silence at 11o'clock.

Timeline

World War I took place beyond living memory, between 1914 and 1918.

World War II took place within living memory, between 1939 and 1945.